DEFINITION AND OBJECTIVE

The Advanced Workbook is a digital open-book form of exam, which is graded as an exam performance after successful completion and documentation of all set tasks. The focus is on transfer of knowledge, the knowledge acquired in the course is to be used and integrated. Answers require your own thinking, reasoned opinions and argumentation, or the application of knowledge to specific cases or examples. The answers to the tasks should be given independently and in your own words.

STRUCTURE AND COMPONENTS OF AN ADVANCED WORKBOOK

The Advanced Workbook contains six tasks for written elaboration based on the topics of the course, which are to be worked on independently and submitted through Turnitin.

Submission and operational processing of the Advanced Workbook

Please refer to the instructions for submitting an Advanced Workbook in your myCampus course.

Procedure

Please proceed following the exact steps below:

1. Click on the link of the workbook assignments on the myCampus course page to download the PDF document to your laptop, PC, etc. Transfer the workbook tasks into a Word document and edit them. Make sure that you observe the formatting requirements. You can return to a task at any time during the course to improve it or carry it on if you wish.
2. The answer to each task should be one A4 page of text in length (+/-10%), adhering to the formatting requirements.
3. Please create a title page.
4. Once you have completed all the tasks and created a title page, please create 1 PDF document.
5. Please name the entire file as follows: YYYYMMDD_Last name_First name_Matriculation number_Course abbreviation (e.g.: 20230325_Smith_John_12345678_Samplecourse01).
6. Now upload the PDF document to Turnitin. You will find the instructions in your myCampus course. There you will also find out when you can expect the result of the exam.
7. After successfully uploading the whole file, you have done it!

8. After the assessment period, you will receive your grade and the information whether you have passed the course.

Citations

If you use additional sources in your research and discussion of the respective topic (whether this is mandatory or optional in your course), they must be cited according to the guidelines. It must be clearly recognisable at which points in the text the author's own conclusions and opinions are included and what is taken from additional literature. Direct quotations are to be avoided.

Tips for working on Advanced Workbook tasks

You have worked through the contents of the course and are ready to work on your Advanced Workbook?

Below we would like to give you some guidance for your work. Deal with each workbook task individually and proceed as follows:

1. Read the task carefully.
2. Consider calmly which theory(s), model(s) or relevant fact(s) from your course materials might be best suited to answer the task.
3. Then check that you have understood the theory(s), model(s) or issue(s) by trying to explain them, for example, to a fellow student, good friend or family member. If you are not yet sufficiently successful, use the additional material available in your myCampus course (if applicable) for a better understanding.
4. As soon as the "core" of the theory(s), model(s) or issue(s) matching the task is clear to you, think about how you can word your answer precisely and in a way that is tailored to the task. First outline your solution to the task in bullet points and then check whether it is comprehensible and whether your statements build on each other. Only then formulate your answer.
5. Note: The answers to the tasks should be given independently, in one's own words and based on/using the knowledge acquired in the course.
